

Disclaimer

Team name :

Coach name :

Undersigned declares that he/she, as coach of the team mentioned above, is convinced that all participants, listed on the entry lists provided by his/her club for the pool competition organized by LifeSaving.nl on august 21st 2011, are in possession of some kind of certificate recognizing their life saving abilities. He/she declares that these certificates are recognized by the national Life Saving federation.

Further, he/she declares that all personal data and ages provided on the entry lists are correct and without error.

He/she declares that his/her club is in the possession of a certificate of health of every participant, provided that the national federation issues such certificates.

When a participant competes without membership of any kind of national life saving federation, the coach guarantees that it is plausible that the participant can complete his/her events without any problems.

The coach and/or the club mentioned above state that LifeSaving.nl is not liable for casualties arising from not meeting the competition conditions, casualties arising from not meeting the rules valid in the facilities of Zwembad de Wisselaar and recognizes that this competition is at the participant's own risk.

The coach,

.....

This disclaimer needs to be handed over to the organization at the day of competition.